Christmas at Northwoods. . .

Our club Christmas party was great as usual. Check out the pictures . . . It looks like everyone had a good time. And to top it off, we had a lot of Santa's at the party.

And to think we just reelected this guy president!!

Who let these four in?? They all look like they were over served!!

The table decorations were beautiful.

Mary hit on the waiter.

And then we went to the La Habra Lions Car Show at Don Steves. . .

We met at Gary and Karen's prior to the show for donuts and coffee. Kudos to them for doing that!! I'm sure the neighbors weren't impressed when so many cars showed up but we did have a lot of people cruise down the street slowly so they could see our cars. The show was nice but they didn't have enough room for all the cars and some were turned away (not us!!). The club did OK in the award department with a trophy for club participation (I think we had 21 cars) and 4 individual trophies. Congrats to all the winners.
